Sermon Notes

Knysna Baptist Church

6 January 2019

God will guard the feet of His faithful ones, but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness, for not by might shall a man prevail... The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; He will give strength to His king and exalt the horn of His Anointed.— (1 Samuel 2: 9,10)

In dark times, God gives us enough light for each step, as and when we have to walk. In order to receive that light, we need to be tuned to the right channel, giving it priority. Surely, darkness that trips the ungodly lurks even in relatively innocent channels like friendship and commerce.

If we receive on other channels (and we do), then God's channel needs to be the one governing both how we choose, and how we interpret what we see and hear.

Welcome this Lord's Day, be encouraged in walking His way through 2019.

Claude
