"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord ...
Psalm 92:1."

Developing the grace of thankfulness is a necessary discipline, for thanks are due to God our Father. Our unchanging God showers His mercies and blessings on us "morning by morning" and it ought to be our joy to return thanks morning by morning. May it never be said of us, "where are the nine others who were healed?" as Jesus asked of the leper who came to say thanks. A spirit of thankfulness is conducive to joy, lifts our hearts and minds and sets our thoughts on the Giver of all gifts.

Starting this morning, let us "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits". (Psalm 103:2). Rehearse in your heart this day all the many blessings for which you can give thanks and then your worship will be a joy.
